

Arts and Sciences Faculty Excellence Awards Call for Nominations

The School of Arts & Sciences is pleased to announce a Call for Nominations for five Arts and Sciences Faculty Excellence Awards in AY 23-24:

- Excellence in Teaching
- Excellence in Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activities
- Excellence in Service
- Inclusive Excellence Award
- Excellence in Mentoring

The Faculty Excellence Awards are open to all faculty in Arts & Sciences, regardless of rank and including Tenure-Track and Non-Tenure-Track faculty. Awards will consist of $1000 in cash, or as research funds to be used in next 2 years, at the discretion of the awardee.

Nominations must be submitted by midnight, February 9, 2024. Both self-nominations and nominations by a faculty colleague are accepted. Please consider nominating yourself or an exceptional colleague for recognition! Nominations consist of the name of the nominator and nominee, which award the individual is being nominated for, and a brief nomination statement (up to 250 words) on why the individual is being nominated for the award.

Individuals who are nominated for an award will be notified and asked to submit an application by midnight Friday, March 1, 2024. Applications consist of the following:

- An application letter (up to 1000 words maximum) which can include quotes from students or colleagues, and
- Applicant's vita or resume (3 page maximum, tailored to the specific award)

Questions about the awards or nomination process should be directed to facultyexcellenceawards@csuci.edu. Please check the Arts and Sciences Faculty Excellence Awards website for more details.
